

Tragedy struck the LGBTQI Community in Orlando, FL

Please join us to support our community & each other

Our hearts and love extended in this time of deep sadness, fear and confusion for the LGBTQI community and the world at large. The suffering is great in this moment.

Please join your Sangha mates informally at the vigil at Harvey Milk Plaza in the Castro District planned for 8 p.m. today; several city leaders are expected to attend.

A service for all those lost, injured, their families, and our family and to encourage peaceful compassion in Orlando as well as worldwide - Monday June 13th @6:40pm following Monday evening Zazen and Saturday, June 18th @11am following the Dharma talk and normal Saturday program.

Please join us and as always take care of yourselves and each other

Please also note  hszc.org (our main site) has had some recent hacker activity and is coming and going offline as we fix this issue.
